Strategic targets to achieve objective:

Listing on more exchanges, both centralized (CEX) and decentralized (DEX), can increase the token's visibility and accessibility. This can lead to a broader user base and potentially higher demand for the token.

Establishing partnerships with other projects and platforms can help increase the utility and adoption of $BCH token. I'm already in a number of discussions with projects and negotiating terms and conditions. These partnerships will introduce new holders making the token more desirable.

3. Airdrops & Rewards:
The unique structure of BCH seeks to offer it's community and supporting communities rewards ($BCH) via buying and selling NFTs.This can help maintain a stable or growing user base, which is crucial for the token's value. Future incentives will be incorporated via spot prizes & games to maximise engagement.

4. Marketing and Exposure:
PR will help raise awareness about the $BCH token and its benefits. High visibility on social media can attract more investors and holders, leading to an increase in the token's value.
Being active on social media (X / discord) will be my two main social media platforms.
I am aware others exist which may become a viable option as the project grows.

5. Transparency and Regular Announcements:
Regular updates on the project's progress &
Transparent communication to instill trust within the community and attract new investors.

Actively engaging with the community and addressing issues raised quickly and efficiently.
Implementing any creditable suggestions to strengthen the ecosystem.
Having a polling stations so ideas can be shared and discussed within the community listening to their needs.
All this and more will help build trust can lead to a more dedicated community that supports the token's growth.

7. Product Launches:
